OBJECTION TO CLAIM NUMBER 3 (21457005) Valeri Burnough

CASSANDRA JOHNSON-LANDRY, Debtor, currently objects to the above claim. The Creditor is currently deceased. Further investigation revealed no trust was established prior to her death in 2020. In addition, Debtor was made aware of claim being filed in order to dissolve agency for purposes of covering illegal activity uncovered by, Debtor. Appeared illegal activity involved Debtor's previous business partner. The Claimant was an employee of the ATTACHMENT AND BONDING CENTER OF ATLANTA, LLC. This is a commercial claim and should not appear in Debtor's personal bankruptcy case. Previous documentation objecting to claim was submitted in 2018. Debtor did not owe any outstanding payments to Claimant. The ATTACHMENT AND BONDING CENTER OF ATLANTA LLC, did not file bankruptcy. Although the Debtor was the CEO of the agency, the claimant did not work for CASSANDRA JOHNSON-LANDRY, DEBTOR. (EXHIBIT A)

November 2015, I contacted Valerie via email as the new DFCS Service Manager to come into the office to staff/review her cases. She informed me at that time that she did not have any cases and told DFCS case managers on the cases she serviced that she was no longer employed with the agency because she had not been paid and they should look for another provider to transport. At that time I asked her why didn't she inform ABC to reassign the cases to another worker and she did not respond.

December 2015, I contacted Valerie came into the office stating that she was not paid for half of the month of July and none of August or September and was seeking payment. At that time, I pulled notes and only located July. There were no notes for August or September 2015. I provided Valerie with a total for some of July invoice still owed as the agency was awaiting DFCS payment as they had a obtain a WAIVER for payment from their State Office. I discussed this issue with Ms. Landry and she instructed me to contact Valerie and allow her to resubmit her notes for the missing months she was not paid, which were August and September 2015. Valerie was contacted via email and telephone to resubmit the notes as they would be processed for payment. Valerie came to the office and submitted only the month of August and stated she could not locate September 2015 on her computer, however to give her until the next day to locate. Ms. Landry agreed and allowed Valerie the next day by close of business (5pm) to submit the September 2015 notes. The next day Valerie was emailed by myself as to the agreement. Valerie telephoned the next day and stated that she could not locate them but to process August and await the approval of the DFCS waiver for payment to the agency.

March 2016, Valerie was contacted via telephone and a voice message was left that the payment was received for the waiver along with August notes and that her check is ready and to call to confirm her address. No response was ever received from her as of this date.

Ms. Valerie Burnough did not provide the agency with a letter of resignation as to the allegations as well as informing the agency to reassign the cases she serviced to another worker within Attachment and Bonding, but instead informed DFCS case managers to find another provider. Supervisor D'Londa Lanier reported to me that the Bridges case was assigned to Valerie and after her departure she was forced to obtain assistance for transportation from another agency as Valerie stated to her that she was no longer employed with the agency and there wasn't anyone else with ABC available to take the case. The agency regained the case for services in May 2016 after Ms. Lanier learned that this information was not true and ABC indeed had staff to service the children and family. ABC lost revenue due to the statements made by Valerie indicating that the agency could not provide services from the months of September 2015 thru April 2016. The case was scheduled for services thru ABC in May 2016.

Form 1099-MISC

(Keep for your records.)

Department of the Treasury - Internal Revenue Service

Recipient's identification number. For your protection, this form may show only the last four digits of your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), or adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN). However, the issuer has reported your complete identification number to the IRS and, where applicable, to state and/or local government.

Account number. May show an account or other unique number the payer assigned to distinguish your account.

FATCA filing requirement. If the FATCA filing requirement box is checked, the payer is reporting on this Form 1099 to satisfy its chapter 4 account reporting requirement. You also may have a filing requirement. See the instructions to Form 9836.

Withholding may be subject to self-employment (SE).

If your net income from self-employment is $400 or more, you must file a return and compute your SE tax on Schedule SE (Form 1040). See Pub. 334 for more information. If no income or social security and Medicare taxes were withheld and you are still receiving these payments, see Form 1040-ES (or Form 1040-ES-NR). Individuals must report these amounts as explained in box 7 instructions on this page. Corporations, estates, trusts, or other entities must report the amounts on the taxpayer's return of their tax return.

Form 1099-MISC incorrect? If this form is incorrect or was lost, contact the payer. If you cannot get this form corrected, attach an explanation to your tax return and report your income correctly.

Box 1. Rents from real estate on Schedule E (Form 1040). However, report rents on Schedule C (Form 1040) if you provided significant services to the tenant, sold real estate as a business, or rented personal property as a business.

Box 2. Royalties from oil, gas, or mineral properties, copyrights, and patents on Schedule E (Form 1040). However, report payments for a working interest as explained in the box 7 instructions. For royalties on timber, coal, and iron ore, see Pub. 544.

Box 3. Generally, report this amount on the "Other income" line of Form 1040 (or Form 1040-NR) and identify the payment. The amount shown may be payments received as the beneficiary of a deceased employee, prize, award, taxable damages, Indian gaming profits, or other taxable income. See Pub. 625. If it is trade or business income, report this amount on Schedule C or F (Form 1040).

Box 4. Shows backup withholding or withholding on Indian gaming profits. Generally, a payer must backup withhold if you did not furnish your taxpayer identification number. See Form W-9 and Pub. 505 for more information. Report this amount on your income tax return as tax withheld.

Box 5. An amount in this box means the fishing boat operator considers you self-employed. Report this amount on Schedule C (Form 1040). See Pub. 334.

Box 6. For individuals, report on Schedule C (Form 1040).

Box 7. Shows nonemployee compensation. If you are in the trade or business of catching fish, box 7 may show cash you received for the sale of fish. If the amount in this box is SE income, report it on Schedule C or F (Form 1040), and complete Schedule SE (Form 1040). You received this form instead of Form W-2 because the payer did not consider you an employee and did not withhold income tax or social security and Medicare tax. If you believe you are an employee and cannot get the payer to correct this form, report the amount from box 7 on Form 1040, line 7 (or Form 1040-NR, line 8). You must also complete Form 8879 and attach it to your return. If you are not an employee but the amount in this box is not SE income (for example, it is income from a sporadic activity or a hobby), report it on Form 1040, line 21 (or Form 1040-NR, line 21).

Box 8. Shows substitute payments in lieu of dividends or tax-exempt interest received by your broker on your behalf as a result of a loss of your securities. Report on the "Other income" line of Form 1040 (or Form 1040-NR).

Box 9. If checked, $5,000 or more of sales of consumer products was paid to you on a buy-sell, deposit-commission, or other basis. Additional amount does not have to be shown. Generally, report any income from your sale of these products on Schedule C (Form 1040).

Box 10. Report this amount on Schedule F (Form 1040).

Box 11. Shows your total compensation of excess golden parachute payments subject to a 20% excise tax. See the Form 1040 (or Form 1040-NR) instructions for where to report.

Box 14. Shows gross proceeds paid to an attorney in connection with legal services. Report only the taxable part as income on your return.

Box 15a. May show current year deferrals as a nonemployee under a nonqualified deferred compensation (NQDC) plan that is subject to the requirements of section 409A, plus any earnings on current and prior year deferrals.

Box 15b. Shows income as a nonemployee under an NQDC plan that does not meet the requirements of section 409A. This amount is also included in box 7 as nonemployee compensation. Any amount included in box 15a that is currently taxable is also included in this box. This income is also subject to a substantial additional tax to be reported on Form 1040 (or Form 1040-NR). See "Total Tax" in the Form 1040 (or Form 1040-NR) instructions. Boxes 16-18. Shows state or local income tax withheld from the payments.

Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S FINAL REPORT AND
APPLICATIONS FOR COMPENSATION
AND DEADLINE TO OBJECT (NFR)

Pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002(a)(6) and 2002(f)(8), please take notice that S. Gregory Hays, trustee of the above styled estate, has filed a Final Report and the trustee and the trustee's professionals have filed final fee applications, which are summarized in the attached Summary of Trustee's Final Report and Applications for Compensation.

The complete Final Report and all applications for compensation are available for inspection at the Office of the Clerk, at the following address:

1340 Richard B. Russell Bldg.
75 Ted Turner Drive, SW
Atlanta, GA 30303

Please take further notice that the Court will hold a hearing on the Trustee's Final Report and Applications for Compensation in Courtroom 1204, United States Courthouse, 75 Ted Turner Drive, SW, Atlanta, Georgia, at 10:10 a.m. on March 11, 2021.

Given the current public health crisis, hearings may be telephonic only. Please check the "Important Information Regarding Court Operations During COVID-19 Outbreak" tab at the top of the GANB Website prior to the hearing for instructions on whether to appear in person or by phone.

Your rights may be affected by the Court's ruling on these pleadings. You should read these pleadings carefully and discuss them with your attorney, if you have one in this bankruptcy case. (If you do not have an attorney, you may wish to consult one.) If you do not want the Court to grant the relief sought in these pleadings or if you want the court to consider your views, then you and/or your attorney must attend the hearing. You may also file a written response to the pleading with the Clerk at the address stated below, but you are not required to do so. If you file a written response, you must attach a certificate stating when, how and on whom (including addresses) you served the response. Mail or deliver your response so that it is received by the Clerk at least two business days before the hearing. The address of the Clerk's Office is Clerk, U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Suite 1340, 75 Ted Turner Drive, Atlanta Georgia 30303. You must also mail a copy of your response to the undersigned at the address stated below.
